5. Nominations

Dear Life Membership Committee

It is with great respect and admiration that we nominate Mark Peterlin for Life Membership of the Port Kembla Surf Life Saving Club. Mark's dedication to the club and its mission has been exemplary, having been an active patrolling member for over 25 years. His unwavering commitment has not only helped shape the club's success but has also been crucial during challenging times.

Marks Contributions and Achievements have been listed below

1. Patrolling Member for Over 25 Years: Mark has consistently demonstrated exceptional service to the club, accumulating over 1000 volunteer patrol hours. His tireless commitment to safeguarding the lives of beachgoers has made him an invaluable member of the Port Kembla Surf Life Saving Club.
2. Patrol Captain for Over 10 Years: For more than a decade, Mark has served as a Patrol Captain, exemplifying leadership, responsibility, and teamwork. Under his guidance, patrols have run smoothly and efficiently, ensuring a high standard of safety and service to the community.
3. Consistency and Dedication: Mark's consistency as a patroller is unparalleled. His dedication to the club and its members has been a beacon of reliability, especially during periods when the club faced low membership numbers. His contribution has been a stabilizing force that helped the club through tough times, and he played a significant role in the club's rebuilding efforts. Mark's commitment has been integral to the club's resurgence into the strong position it holds today.
4. True Pride and Commitment to the Club: Mark has consistently displayed an exceptional level of pride in his role as a patroller and leader within the club. His passion for surf lifesaving and his desire to contribute to the community have been apparent in all his actions. Mark's leadership has fostered a sense of camaraderie among members and inspired many to follow his example.
5. SLSA Rescue Medal recognition - On ANZAC Day the Port Kembla SLSC patrol were notified that a fisherman had been swept off Honeycomb Rocks, which is a notoriously dangerous part of the coast. Mark Peterlin responded immediately, launching the IRB and making several attempts to navigate the large swell and dangerous conditions

Mark's impact on the Port Kembla Surf Life Saving Club extends far beyond his patrol hours. His steady leadership as Patrol Captain has ensured that the club remains a reliable and trusted presence within the local community. His support during challenging membership periods has been invaluable, and his dedication to ensuring the safety and wellbeing of others is truly inspiring.

Mark Peterlin's life of service to the Port Kembla Surf Life Saving Club is a testament to his character and dedication to the club's values. His more than 25 years of service, over 1000 volunteer patrol hours, and his leadership as a Patrol Captain for over 10 years make him a deserving candidate for Life Membership. We strongly recommend that Mark Peterlin be honoured with this recognition for his exemplary service and commitment to the club, its members, and the community at large.

Dear Life Membership Committee,

It is with great honour and respect that we nominate Shayne Gladden for Life Membership of the Port Kembla Surf Life Saving Club. Shayne's dedication to the club has been unwavering for over three decades, and his contributions to surf lifesaving and the club's development have been exceptional. With over 1000 volunteer patrol hours and a consistent presence in the club, Shayne's impact has been felt both as a patroller and as a mentor to junior lifesavers.

Contributions and Achievements:

1. Patrolling Member Since 1989: Shayne obtained his Bronze Medallion in 1989 and has been a committed and active patrolling member ever since. With over 1000 volunteer patrol hours to his name, Shayne has consistently prioritized the safety of beachgoers, demonstrating a strong sense of duty and responsibility.
2. Unparalleled Consistency and Commitment: Shayne's commitment to the club and its goals is unparalleled. His dedication has been a key factor in the club's ability to navigate difficult periods of low membership, helping maintain a high standard of safety and community service during challenging times. His contribution has been instrumental in the club's revival to its strong position today.
3. Pride and Dedication to the Club: Shayne has shown an extraordinary level of pride and dedication in his role as a patroller. His commitment to the values of surf lifesaving and his passion for serving the community have set a remarkable example for others to follow. His consistent and selfless efforts embody the true spirit of the Port Kembla Surf Life Saving Club.
4. Mentorship and Leadership to Junior Lifesavers: One of Shayne's greatest strengths is his role as a mentor and leader for the club's junior lifesavers. He sets a high standard for the younger members of the club, fostering their development and instilling in them a strong sense of responsibility and pride in surf lifesaving. Shayne's leadership ensures that the next generation of lifesavers is well-prepared to carry on the club's legacy.

Shayne's impact on the Port Kembla Surf Life Saving Club has been profound. His contributions as a patrolling member and mentor have helped ensure the safety of countless individuals and have played a significant role in the development of future lifesavers. Shayne's unwavering commitment to the club, especially during difficult times, has been a stabilizing force that has allowed the club to rebuild and grow stronger than ever.

Shayne Gladden's over 30 years of dedicated service to the Port Kembla Surf Life Saving Club, his 1000 volunteer patrol hours, and his exceptional leadership and mentorship make him a most deserving candidate for Life Membership. Shayne's passion, consistency, and selflessness have had a lasting impact on the club, and it is with great pleasure that we recommend him for this prestigious recognition.

Port Kembla NSW 2505

Dear Life Membership Committee,

I am writing to formally nominate Nathan Boscaro for Life Membership of the Port Kembla Surf Life Saving Club. Nathan's dedication to the club, his tireless volunteer work, and his unwavering commitment to the safety and success of our members and the broader community make him an ideal candidate for this prestigious recognition.

Nathan has been an invaluable member of our club for over 11 years, demonstrating outstanding leadership, service, and commitment to the principles of surf lifesaving. His contributions span across a wide range of roles and responsibilities that have significantly advanced the club's mission. Below is a summary of his key achievements and contributions:

1. Extensive Volunteer Patrol Service

Nathan has volunteered over 650 hours of patrol service, consistently going above and beyond to ensure the safety of our beachgoers. For the past 10 years, Nathan has served as Patrol Captain, leading and mentoring our patrol teams and ensuring the smooth operation of all patrol activities. His leadership on patrols has been vital in fostering a safe and efficient environment for both members and the public.

2. Executive Leadership and Governance

Nathan has served for 8 years in executive roles as both Secretary and Deputy Secretary, where his attention to detail and dedication to the club's governance and operations has had a lasting impact. His ability to manage administrative tasks, communicate effectively, and lead with integrity has been invaluable in the continued growth of the club.

3. Fundraising and Grant Management

Nathan has been instrumental in securing over $1.2 million in government grants and sponsorships, funding 9 separate projects that have enhanced the club's facilities, equipment, and community outreach programs. His expertise in navigating the complexities of grant applications and sponsorships has directly contributed to the club's financial health and sustainability.

4. Clubhouse Refurbishments and Project Management

Nathan has devoted countless hours overseeing the project management of several Development Applications (DA) and the construction contracts for clubhouse refurbishments. His keen attention to detail, leadership, and project management skills ensured these major developments were completed successfully, helping to modernize and improve the club's facilities for current and future members.

5. Training and Development

A qualified Bronze Medallion and IRB Trainer and Assessor, Nathan has played a key role in the training and development of many new surf lifesavers, imparting his knowledge and expertise to ensure high standards of lifesaving practice. His work in training the next generation of members has been critical to ensuring the safety of the community.

6. Competitive and Boat Crew Contributions

Since March 17, 2016, Nathan has been an integral member of our Swept Boat Crew, competing in numerous events and showcasing exceptional team spirit and athleticism. His commitment to the boat crews, combined with his ASRL Bronze Medal in the Ressie Females category, speaks to his dedication to both the club's competitive and community-driven efforts.

7. Fundraising and Event Management

Over the years, Nathan has actively contributed to the management of various fundraising events, helping to ensure the financial viability and success of the club. His organizational skills and ability to rally support from both club members and the local community have made him a pivotal figure in the club's fundraising efforts.

8. State and Branch Representation

Nathan has consistently represented the Port Kembla Surf Life Saving Club at both the branch and state levels, ensuring that the club's voice is heard, and its interests are represented in broader decision-making processes. His involvement in these forums has helped strengthen the club's standing within the wider surf lifesaving community.

9. Recognition and Awards

Nathan was recognized for his outstanding patrol service by being awarded the SLSA 15-Year National Patrol Service Award, further exemplifying his ongoing dedication to the values of surf lifesaving. His long-standing commitment to the club is a testament to his personal values of service, safety, and community.

In summary, Nathan's exceptional contributions to the Port Kembla Surf Life Saving Club, his leadership across multiple areas of club life, and his unwavering dedication to the safety and success of our community make him an outstanding candidate for Life Membership. Nathan's work has had a profound impact on the club, and he has consistently gone above and beyond in every role he has undertaken.

I wholeheartedly support this nomination and strongly believe Nathan Boscaro deserves to be recognized with Life Membership for his exceptional service to the Port Kembla Surf Life Saving Club.

Thank you for considering this nomination.

Yours sincerely,

Rhys Bowdich
